What, according to the piece would allow a future president to bring back torture?

How would the Feinstein and McCain amendment prevent the future use of torture?
Does the new policy call for criminal prosecution for those that continue torture? How might this be a problem?

What, does the President’s policy do in regard to Rendition?

In what way does the opinion piece suggest the Army Field Manual is flawed?

In what way has the new law taken the cited criticisms into account? What will be done about it?

How would YOU answer the articles basic question? Has Obama banned torture? Explain your answer, using facts and examples.