DIRECTIONS: Read the article and answer the questions below – “T” for True and “F” for False.

1. T  President Obama reversed Bush policies in detention and interrogation of suspected terrorists and ordered the closure of Guantanamo Bay.
2. F  Obama spelled out specific details about what would be done with detainees it concludes are too dangerous to be released.
3. T  Obama’s actions drew praise from human rights groups.
4. T  The Obama orders specifically banned renditions – the secret transfer of prisoners captured in one country to another, without trial.
5. F  The action left open a separate protocol the CIA may use to govern interrogations.
6. _____ A Cabinet-level task force will study how to deal with the 245 remaining Guantanamo Bay prisoners and determine which can be released and which can be tried in U.S. civilian or military courts.

7. _____ Some prisoners may be determined to be dangerous but not prosecutable because of allegations of abuse or torture, or evidence against them is scanty.

8. _____ The panel will not make recommendations about how future high-level terrorism suspects should be handled, but will instead leave it to Congress to create the guidelines.

9. _____ The overarching message Obama said should be unequivocal is that the United States does not torture.

10. _____ The Four orders signed by Obama are in keeping with major campaign promises.

FINAL QUESTION: Your Opinion

Do you support President Obama's reversal of the Bush-era practices of enhanced interrogation? Did the reversals go too far or not far enough? What would you have done if you were President? Be specific and use examples in your answer.